

DEPARTMENT A -- OPEN CLASS BEEF CATTLE

Premiums Offered: $14,800.00

Superintendents: Morris Brandt, Tom Garleb, Matthew Brandt and Dan Glaenger

Judging begins at 8:30 A.M. on Thursday, July 22, 2021

Entry Fee: $20.00 (Winners Only)

Stall Fee $14.00 per head

JUDGING RULES:

1. A trophy will be awarded the Grand Champion Female in each breed division. Only first place heifers will be eligible for Grand Champion competition. Once the Grand Champion female has been selected, the second place female from the class the Grand Champion female was chosen will be allowed to compete with the remaining female class winners for the Reserve Grand Champion. Same rules apply to male classes and cow/calf classes.
2. Steer classes will be split into weight classes prior to show. When filling entry, use BREED Premium Number for HEAVY WEIGHT classes.
3. Market steers will be judged and placed according to breed in the following four classes: Hereford, Black Angus, All Other Breeds and Commercial. Ribbons will be awarded by class to 4-H entries, Junior, and Open entries. For Grand Champion classes, first and second place animals can compete in the same manner as the breeding classes.
4. Any rated 4-H white ribbon steer which the judge deems not market ready will be ineligible for the sale.
5. The order of sale for the steers will be determined from a drawing by each exhibitor at the Fair Week Premier Weigh-In.

RULES FOR THE MONROE COUNTY 4-H AND FFA RABBIT MEAT PEN AND SINGLE FRYER SALE

1. The judge will evaluate the meat pens (Open, Junior and 4-H), at the same time. Which class will be the first class of the show will be agreed upon by the judges and the superintendents. The following procedure will be followed:

* The SUPERINTENDENTS will weigh each rabbit in the meat pen, at 11:00 a.m. on Monday.

* After weighing, the judge will evaluate and place the meat pens for the Open, Junior and 4-H ratings.

2. The minimum weight of each meat pen or single fryer rabbit is 3 pounds and the maximum weight of each rabbit is 5 lbs. The rabbit must not be over 69 days of age.

3. Meat pen rabbits should be a meat pen breed (California, New Zealand, or other large-boned breeds)

4. In the 4-H Show, the meat pens and single fryers will receive blue, red and white ribbons.

5. All meat pens and single fryers rated with blue and red ribbons will be eligible to sell.

6. 4-H & FFA members will only be allowed to sell one meat pen or one single fryer entry. The exhibitor must inform the 4-H superintendent of their decision at the judging.

7. 4-H & FFA exhibitors must draw for sale order after meat pen and single fryer classes are judged.

8. The seller and buyer will work out the handling and processing.

9. A group picture will be taken of all exhibitors and buyers. Fee for this advertisement will be charged equally to each exhibitor.

ROOSTER CROWING CONTEST

The Monroe County Rooster Crowing Contest will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, July 21, 2021. The following rules apply.

- 1) Roosters entered in the Rooster Crowing Contest must be entered in the Monroe County Fair Poultry classes.
- 2) Each owner may enter only one rooster.
- 3) The owner may use a substitute handler. Only one handler will be allowed per rooster.
- 4) Handlers must remain on the side of the cages away from the judges.
- 5) Handlers may put a litter of their choice in the bottom of their cages. With the exception of the addition of litter, handlers may not alter the cage in any way.
- 6) Handlers are encouraged to use any means to stimulate the bird to crow. Touching of the rooster, however, by hand or with another object will disqualify the entry. Tossing food or other items into the cage to encourage the rooster to crow is allowed, so long as direct contact is not made between the rooster and his handler.

7) Scoring will be the number of times the entry crows during the thirty-minute time limit.
